PRESENTS NEW IMPROVISED MUSIC FROM
LEADING U.S. and EUROPEAN JAZZ LABELS

ICTUS RECORDS (<http://www.ictusrecords.com>)

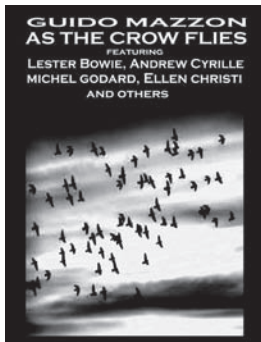

the creative label for creative music since 1976

I always consider myself a composer using percussion and keyboards as one of many means I'm using (orchestra included) to give life to my music. That's why in an album making, the conceiving before ad the editing after are so important to me.
(Andrea Centazzo)

We showed up at the train with all the equipment, 50 cases of percussion. The organizer is five hours late to meet. Then we all get searched on highway by the Italian police, looking for terrorists of the Red Brigade...
(Eugene Chadbourne)

Different musicians, different places, different times: one mind about music. Playing like writing on a "tabula rasa" where I draw sounds, emotions, and closed relationships with my partners.
(Guido Mazzon)

TASO MUSIC (<http://www.taso-music.com>)

Exciting and creative global jazz music label with diverse folk influences.

The disc is the brainchild of bassist Vitold Rek and records a musical meeting of some of the world's best jazz soloists with Polish folk players which confirms how attractive and spontaneous the exchange between different cultures can be.

Robin Stowell,
Double Bassist, Summer 2002, England

*Charlie Mariano & Vitold Rek
Opus Absolutum (TMP 509)*

"opus absolutum" is without a doubt an absolute masterpiece!

Tobias Boecker,
Jazzzeitung 2003, Germany.

*Vitold Rek & EastWestWind Home (TMP 515)
feat. Jaroslav Bester, Ramesh Shotham*

Phenomenal! Above all, the melange of jazz and Klezmer, of Polish folk music and Celtic influences just sounds outrageously good.

Michael Sohn,
Stereoplay 5/07, Germany
